

CORPORATE

Experienced, adaptable partners
in corporate administration

A full-service corporate administration solution for standalone companies, or complex, multi-entity /asset class structures. Your highly-skilled LGL team, of accountants, lawyers, secretaries, and compliance professionals, develops a deep understanding of your businesses in order to support your corporate goals. With our multijurisdictional reach, we have developed a streamlined process for forming entities across borders, adopting the highest standards of compliance with the goal of delivering optimal tax-efficiency as your business grows.

Types of structures administered by LGL include:

- holding companies
- financing / debt structures
- joint ventures, reorganisations and refinancing
- investment club and private fund structures
- co-investment and carry structures

Corporate Accounting Services

LGL's excellence in accounting is a vital asset in your business's ongoing success. With detailed knowledge of jurisdictional regulatory standards, we remove friction from your pathway to growth, while providing timely, accurate record-keeping to keep every stakeholder in your business aligned.

Multi-jurisdictional SPV establishment

Quickly and efficiently establish companies, partnerships, cell entities, foundations and trusts, and shape your organisation around your corporate goals. Services include collating of all AML documentation, onboarding, bank account opening and corporate structuring.

Director Services & Corporate Governance

LGL's directors have first-hand experience of corporate business, delivering the highest standards of management and control to your organisation. Our tailored corporate governance service ensures we can deal with one-off transactions as well as the ongoing timely delivery of information to stakeholders.

Financial & Regulatory Reporting

Monthly quarterly management accounts, tailored to individual client's needs, and tax and regulatory reporting as required under CRS and FATCA.

To find out more,
please contact:

Alan Dunphy
Head of Corporate
& Executive Incentives

+44 (0) 1534 846692
alan.dunphy@lgl-group.com

WHY LGL

As a uniquely independent provider, staffed and led by experienced professionals, LGL brings the personal touch to every aspect of client service.

We strive to ensure our clients experience excellence in all aspects of our service and are well positioned to help them achieve their strategic goals.

Director Led

As an owner-managed firm, we have personal stakes in the provision of unsurpassed client service. Our directors lead the setup of bespoke services, tailored to clients' needs, and retain responsibility for day-to-day running of client teams, and of their ongoing success.

Unrivalled Expertise

Our focus is on enhancing our clients' businesses with highly skilled, experienced individuals. We take a motivated and committed approach to service delivery, we understand different client structures in detail, and we are diligent in meeting operational and reporting deadlines.

Commercial Partners

Beyond being trusted leaders in administration, we are valued partners in business. With detailed knowledge of our clients' businesses and of their industries, we exceed clients' expectations with a proactive and efficient service.

Uniquely Independent

As an independent service provider, we are unconstrained by commercial influence, allowing us to focus exclusively on our clients' needs, of client teams, and of their ongoing success.

Technology Enhanced

As an independent service provider, we are unconstrained by commercial influence, allowing us to focus exclusively on our clients' needs.

