

EXECUTIVE INCENTIVES

A specialist division of corporate administration

LGL's incentives division delivers specialism and expertise in this distinct area of corporate administration. This includes a professional trustee service, for clients who wish to operate a standard employee share trust, or for use as a warehousing vehicle for private or portfolio companies. As uniquely independent, commercial partners, LGL takes a pragmatic approach to meeting clients' requirements, recommending brokers, plan administrators and bankers, free from commercial interest, based exclusively on the client's goals.
